

Stephen Musa (Philippines)
Chief Executive Officer
Global Leadership Post.
Batangas city, Philippines.

Stephen Musa is one of the youngest African leadership speakers in the Philippines. In 2018 he helped reach out to 10, 000 kids in the Philippines. Through the Community Transformation Projects, a Non Profitable Organization he founded while he was still a college student. He is the founder and C.E.O of Global Leadership Post in the Philippines; a platform fully dedicated to raising true leaders for Personal and National transformation. He has helped many young people in the city of Batangas to discover their potential and begin living true life.

The City Mayor Hon. Beverly Rose A Dimacuha and the Governor of Batangas Hermilando Mandanas recognize Stephen Musa as one of the African Ambassadors making great contributions to the development of Filipino people, He gained several awards and recognition. Stephen Musa believes where there is a problem, there is a need for a true and effective leader. He also believes everyone is born with a potential to solve a problem; he is passionate about helping individuals discover that. He also served as a Pastor at the Transforming Church International, He is a certified sailor as officer in charge of the engineering watch keeping.

He has a passion for the Filipino people and is currently running a project to reach out to 20,000 young people in the Philippines on or before December 20, 2020.