

Wilma Achol Madut

A mother of six who works in the education sector in both primary and Secondary levels as Student well-being officer and a Mentor respectively. She's also a student in her last year of study in Human Resource Management as well as studying a diploma of counseling.

In her spare time, Wilma volunteers her time in helping and supporting the general well-being of her community. She currently runs a page that advocates for the community Mental health and well-being.